

ARE YOU BREXIT READY?

THE CHALLENGE

- From next year customs controls will apply in a graduated fashion, with full controls taking effect from 1st July 2021 between EU and UK
- Even with a Free Trade Agreement there will be a requirement for customs formalities and checks will apply to all movements
- Customs estimate a five-fold increase in declarations which will generate an additional 200 million clearances per annum
- Brexit will expose 150,000 traders to customs processes for the first time
- Less than half those traders are prepared
- Customs clearance is likely to cost up to £55 per declaration
- Customs clearance infrastructure does not exist to cope with this surge in demand on people and IT
- Therefore businesses who have not made appropriate contingency plans will be at huge risk of disrupting their daily operations
- Without taking action now, businesses will have to pay the inflated market rate, extended lead times to clear goods and run the risk of not having the required auditable accreditations and processes in place in time
- Ensuring the correct commodity codes and delivery terms (incoterms) are understood and applied correctly
